Roving reporters

Start doing some investigating to uncover any club news or celeb gossip, then get writing! You can write about...
• your plans
• things you've done together
• celeb secrets

Read this!

Now you're a budding reporter, think of the perfect title for your newsletter - something to grab readers' attention!

Snap happy

Every good newsletter needs pictures, so get snapping or draw pics next to each news piece. The funnier the better!

Add your stamp

Next, design your club logo and stick it in next to your headline.

Spread the friendship word with your very own club newsletter.

Lucky numbers

Add someone's GT Club card number to your newsletter each issue, so the winner can receive a special prize. Here are some ideas:
• The winner can invite a new person to join the club
• They can choose a secret club password
• They can be treated to a little prize of your choice!

Bling it on!

Add gems or glitter to your newsletters before you send them out.

What's news with you?

Tell us all about your club! Email us at girltalk.magazine@bbc.co.uk

Get digital!

Use your computer skills to make your newsletter look ultra professional!

This is top gossip!

Spread the word

The final step? To hand them out to your club mates and keep them up to date with all your club news!
